

Step One..... Child's Entry. Each child should describe a personal dream and how he/she hopes to achieve it utilizing any form of creative expression. There are no limitations on creativity. Any medium can be used including prose, poetry, photography, video, collage, audio tape, sculpture and painting, depending on the interest of the individual child.

Step Two..... Parent's Entry. Parents are asked to express how they will help this dream come true. Our hope is that this will communicate each parent's degree of commitment, understanding and dedication to help their child make good choices and achieve those goals. Parents as well can use any form of creative expression available.

Step Three..... Fill Out Entry Form. Fill out the entry form and attach it to the work being submitted along with the parent's entry (do not send entry form without a project or parent entry) and send to Orchard Learning Systems HQ. Entries can be submitted any time during the year. Judging is done on a quarterly basis. If an entry is not received prior to the end of one quarter, it will automatically be entered in the next quarter's judging .
